

Goodbye Guatemala

We've always said that the hardest thing about living in Guatemala is being so far away from our families and friends. Now, as we leave Guatemala, the hardest thing is saying goodbye to those who have become like family and great friends!

The Stiff and Eller kids have been friends from the start!

Elena and her best friend, Victoria.

Kayla and Josh, just one month apart in age, and plan to get married someday.

Kayla and Elena have known Leorah from day one!

Our team.

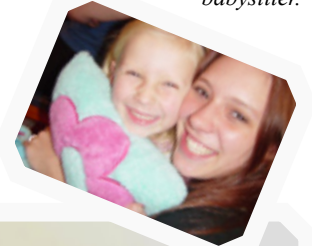

Our team kids are close like cousins!

Friends as close as family!

Our great friends Juan, Nineth, Alejandro, and Daniela.

We love working with these people!

Love,
